Pamphlet-He Is Said to Have Written Letter Previously.

Philadelphia, April 29.—Government agents made known yesterday that they have under arrest H. B. Stilz, formerly a draughtsman at the Philadelphia navy yard, who is accused of distributing a pumphlet attacking Pres. Wilson.

Stilr, it is alleged, wrote a letter to Pres. Wilson several months ago and of such a character as to cause the draughts man's dismissal from the navy yard After his discharge, it is alleged, he began the distribution of the pamphlet. Stile was arrested Thursday night at a hall where a barrar is being held for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the central European powers.
